Home Enrichment Activities:

- Read your child some nursery rhymes before bed time. Tell your child what your favorite nursery rhyme was when you were a child, and ask them which rhyme they like the best!
- Read "Hickory Dickory Dock" with your child. Then, pretend to be mice running up and down a clock. When you get tired, have a mouse snack of cheese and crackers!
- Google instructions for how to make a "telephone" with two cans and a string and help your children create a "phone". After you and your child play with it for a while, ask your child to tell you about how God spoke to Samuel (this can be found in Samuel 3). Remind them that God speaks to us too!
