- Take a walk with your child. When you cross the street, teach your child to look both ways.
- Remember to brush your teeth each day. Talk to your child about how important it is to keep our teeth clean.
- Thank God for the people who keep us safe: parents, teachers, nurses, police officers and crossing guards, etc.

Bible Story: Read Exodus 1:22; 2:1-11. This Bible story tells us that Pharaoh had commanded all sons born to the Hebrew women be thrown into the Nile River. A woman from the family of Levi gave birth to a son. She was able to hide him for a few months. She took a basket and hid him in the river. His sister stood at a distance to watch over the baby. His big sister wanted to make sure that her baby brother was safe! This was very kind of her. Pharaoh's daughter came to the river and commanded her servant to see what was in the basket. They discovered a baby boy inside! The baby's big sister saw this and asked Pharaoh's daughter if she needed someone to help care for the baby. The little boy's mother was able to take care of him for Pharaoh's daughter. Then he was taken to Pharaoh's home where he grew up. He was named Moses because he was "drown out of the water".

God Bless!
